

This image is a scan of a Japanese magazine page from 2010 celebrating the 20th anniversary of the TV show 'Party Color'. The top half features a large title 'パーティーカラーズ' in a stylized font, with the subtitle 'へようこそ!' (Welcome!) below it. To the right is a large illustration of the main character, Win迪 (Win迪), a girl with green hair and a purple outfit. Next to her is another character, Priシア (Priシア). The left side of the page has several smaller illustrations and text boxes. The bottom half shows a grid of nine smaller character portraits, each with a name and a short bio. The overall theme is a vibrant, retro-style illustration.
